Dress Standard:

Disclaimer:

We have the right to ask any camper to change clothes if they do not comply with our dress standard. These are the standards that we have adopted for our week together, and we ask for your participation, as parents, to encourage and insist that your camper comes prepared.

Top:

Modest t-shirts are preferred; sleeveless shirts are acceptable as long as they have not been altered past the hem of the sleeve. No tank tops, spaghetti straps, low-cut, or tight-fitting shirts are allowed.

Clothing must not display or promote alcohol, tobacco, vulgarity or secular bands.

Bottom / Swim:

Shorts must reach a minimum length of mid to lower thigh for both genders. Girls, please use a modest one-piece style swimsuit, guys please use boxer-style trunks. Please choose dark colored shirts for swim apparel.

Friday Night Optional Dress Up:

Dresses must be knee-length at a minimum. Our standards for Tops also applies to dresses (so, girls, you may want to consider bringing a cardigan, or a shrug (half coat) to cover up straps that do not meet the standard.

Footwear:

Shoes are required at ALL times (except when in bed). Flip-Flops are NOT acceptable swim footwear. Sturdy shoes are required for some activities.
